ABOUT THE INSURANCE LAW SECTION OF THE STATE BAR OF TEXAS

The Insurance Law Section is an official, sanctioned section of the State Bar of Texas consisting of approximately 2,300 members. Membership is open to all members of the State Bar of Texas.

Section Mission: Promoting collegiality and educating the bench, bar, and public about Texas insurance law.

The Section is governed by a Council elected from the Section membership. The Council exercises general supervision and control of the affairs of the Section, subject to the Charter and Bylaws of the State Bar. Council members serve a term of two years. Section Officers are, in turn, elected from and by the Council.
